

The journal Wiadomości Konserwatorskie - Journal of Heritage Conservation is a scientific quarterly which presents research results from broadly defined field of heritage conservation. It has been published since 1985 by the Association of Monument Conservators.

Both academics and practitioners, from Poland and abroad, publish the results of their work in the journal. The authors of articles published in Wiadomości Konserwatorskie include architects, constructors, art conservators, archaeologists and art historians. The periodical provides a forum for integrating the conservation community both in Poland and abroad.

The Journal is indexed by the BazTech, BazHum, Pol-INDEX, Index Copernicus and since 2019 SCOPUS databases.
